July 12 - GROUP VOCAL TECHNIQUE

Learn the Art of singing Musical Theatre songs with ease and proper technique from one of the best, ERIN SEARS. Erin received her B.A. Degree in Vocal Performance and Music Education from Vanguard University and her M.A. in Choral Conducting from Azusa Pacific University. She's performed in many of the most prestigious venues in the world, including Carnegie Hall, St. Peter's and St. John's Basilica in Italy, St. Paul's Cathedral in New York, Honda Center, and Beijing Performing Arts Center. Erin has sung on numerous recordings for film scores & movie trailers amongst many other stage performances.

July 19 - IMPROV COMEDY

Learn how to think on your feet or get an audience in hysterics with professional ComedySportz performer and teacher REBECCA BARDSLEY. Rebecca is currently a consultant and show director at Disneyland, and provides Improv & Acting instruction for the Disney Performing Arts Academy. She is a developer & creative director for Glowhouse Productions, creating humorous commercial campaigns for the company, as well as new scripts for film and television. Rebecca's appeared in national commercials for Best Buy, Mobia, SoapNet, and Nintendo.

July 26 - MUSICAL THEATRE DANCE

High-spirited, high-energy dance experience with ROBIN TROWBRIDGE. Robin will teach the fundamentals of Broadway-style dancing in a fun and energetic way! You will learn not only how to execute the steps, but how to layer the performance on top of it. Robin has served as a show director & maintenance choreographer for Disneyland for many years. In his performance days at Disneyland, Robin was seen in many parades and was a regular dancer at the famous Golden Horseshoe Revue.

August 2 - SINGING & DANCING AUDITION WORKSHOP

NOTE: If enrollment in the class is greater than 7 students, this class will be expanded to 3 hours to accommodate the audition process. No additional fee.
Take yourself through the paces of a Musical Theatre audition with Disneyland's own SHELLY NICHOLS. Shelly has been with the Walt Disney Co. for the last 31 years as both performer & workshop instructor. Her spirit & enthusiasm for performing and teaching young students is contagious. You have a laugh while still feeling the energy and thrill of auditioning for a true industry professional who wants you to succeed! Class will include a professional pianist to accompany you, so bring that sheet music!

August 9 - MUSICAL EAR TRAINING FOR THE EVERYDAY PERFORMER

Join SHARON FRAZIER as she teaches you how to become a better music reader. The class will cover simple interval training, hearing a harmonic part, recognizing where a note lands on your voice, and will delve a bit into Music Theory. A very beneficial class for the serious singer. A professional accompanist will assist in the learning process.

August 16 - "ONCE UPON A TIME" - FUN FAIRY TALES WITH JIMMY HIPPENSTIEL! (Class Time: 6:00-9:00pm)

By the end of this class, you will participate in an in-studio staged reading of a classic Fairy Tale. Scripts will be provided, auditioning and casting will be done, followed by a cold read of the script with some simple staging & props added. By 8:45 p.m. your friends and family will arrive at the MTA studio to watch you perform a reading that is sure to make your audience experience that "Happily Ever After." Followed by a punch & cookie party to celebrate the evening's accomplishments!

August 23 - ACTING AND AUDITION WORKSHOP

NOTE: If enrollment in the class is greater than 7 students, class will be expanded to 3 hours to accommodate the audition process. No additional fee.
You've experienced the Singing & Dancing audition workshop, why not become that triple threat that everyone fears at auditions? DEBORAH MATHEWS will teach you how to work on a song as a monologue to bring out the best in you as an ACTOR (who sings). Know the intent behind the lyrics and be in the moment! Please bring sheet music to a standard audition song that you may want to improve upon. A professional accompanist will be provided to help you give a final, polished performance of the piece.

August 30 - MAKEUP TECHNIQUES from BROADWAY PROFESSIONAL PAUL HADABOS

One of the most sought-after professional makeup artists in the Industry, Mr. Hadobas has been a lead makeup artist for Broadway, Los Angeles, and touring productions of "Cats," "The Lion King," "Wicked," and "Jekyll and Hyde," a show he also performed in on Broadway. He will be working locally right here at the Orange County Performing Arts Center on the upcoming touring productions of "In the Heights" and "Young Frankenstein." Mr. Hadobas is also the resident makeup designer for the LA Opera at the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion. MTA is lucky to have him take an interest in our students! Please purchase a Ben Nye theatrical makeup kit for this class.
